

Fall into Art 2006

Saturday, September 9

10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The third annual Fall into Art fine arts and crafts fair will be held outdoors in the Mequon-Thiensville Town Center. To add to the ambience, we offer a variety of children and adult activities. New in 2006 is our Rotary Rubber Duck Race.

Application

Media : Fine arts and crafts in painting, sculpture, prints, drawing, jewelry, metal work, glass, leather, fiber, wood, photography, handmade paper, ceramics, and your choice of media.

Eligibility : The Fair is open to all artisans, 18 and over, who exhibit works of original concept, design, and execution. Manufactured items or imports are not allowed. Exhibitors without prior permission may sell no food. Artists not conforming to above specifications will be asked to leave.

Fees : The booth fee of $40 is non-refundable. All fees benefit the Rotary River Walk, a non-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the area's park system.

Sales : Artists retain all proceeds from sales, and are responsible for collecting and reporting sales tax.
